

Weston Miller is a lifelong resident of Niagara-on-the-Lake and a successful local realtor known for his deep-rooted commitment to the community and its heritage. A graduate of Trinity College at the University of Toronto, Weston returned home with a clear mission: to help preserve the unique character of Niagara-on-the-Lake while supporting its growth in thoughtful, sustainable ways.

Weston brings this same passion and purpose to his real estate practice. His extensive local knowledge, strong community ties, and proven negotiation skills make him a trusted advisor to his clients. With a reputation for integrity and discretion, Weston has built a track record of success representing high-value properties and guiding clients through complex transactions with confidence and clarity.

In addition to his professional accomplishments, Weston holds several leadership roles that reflect his dedication to the community. He is President of the Chautauqua Residents Association, Treasurer of the Niagara Foundation, a Board and Governance Committee Member of the Royal Oak School, and a planning committee member for the Shaw Festival's annual Shivarree fundraiser. Through these roles, Weston advocates for responsible development, heritage preservation, and community engagement.
