

Councillor Maria Mavridis

Maria Mavridis moved to Niagara-on-the-Lake with her family in 1991, where they established and operated a long-standing family business on Queen Street. She studied Business Marketing and built a professional career in hospitality, tourism, and executive management.

She is also the founder of Anchor Niagara, an organization that raises funds for local charities, and has served on numerous community boards including Big Brothers Big Sisters, the Niagara Jazz Festival, and the Niagara-on-the-Lake Museum.

Mavridis was elected to Council in 2022 and has been an outspoken advocate for transparency, tourism policy, and community engagement. In 2021, she received the GNCC Women in Business Community Impact and Leadership Award.

She lives in Virgil with her daughter.
