

Lauren Bubnic – Professional Profile

Location: Niagara-on-the-Lake, Ontario

Lauren Bubnic is a Niagara-on-the-Lake–based human resources professional with experience in consulting, community involvement, and accessibility advocacy.

---

Professional Background

Lauren Bubnic works as a human resources (HR) consultant, providing expertise to organizations across a range of industries. Her professional focus includes:

- HR compliance
- Full-cycle recruitment
- Policy development
- Training and onboarding processes [\[linkedin.com\]](#)

She has worked in consulting roles since at least 2017, offering services to businesses in sectors such as digital media, information technology, and engineering. [\[linkedin.com\]](#)

She has also been associated with L + M Consulting Inc., a consulting company based in Niagara-on-the-Lake that provided management and HR advisory services. [\[dnb.com\]](#)

---

Education and Credentials

- Bachelor of Commerce (B.Comm.), Toronto Metropolitan University [\[linkedin.com\]](#)
- Candidate for Certified Human Resources Leader (CHRL) designation [\[linkedin.com\]](#)

Her academic and professional training reflects a focus on human resources management, organizational development, and employee relations.

---

Community Involvement

Lauren Bubnic has been involved in a number of community and volunteer initiatives, including:

- Niagara-on-the-Lake representative on the Joint Accessibility Advisory Committee, where she contributes to promoting accessibility awareness in public spaces and local businesses [\[linkedin.com\]](#)
- Volunteer work with Niagara Workers Welcome, supporting engagement with agricultural and essential workers in the region [\[linkedin.com\]](#)

She has also previously participated in volunteer and community initiatives with organizations such as WWF-Canada and United Way York Region. [\[linkedin.com\]](#)

---

Public Engagement

Lauren Bubnic has contributed to local public discussions, including writing a letter to the editor on education issues in Niagara-on-the-Lake, reflecting engagement with topics related to public education and community services. [\[niagaranow.com\]](#)

---

Areas of Experience

Her background reflects experience in:

- Human resources and organizational management
  - Community engagement and volunteer initiatives
  - Accessibility awareness and advocacy
  - Participation in local public discussions
-

Summary

Lauren Bubnic is a Niagara-on-the-Lake resident with professional experience in human resources consulting and involvement in community-focused initiatives, including accessibility and local engagement efforts. Her background combines private-sector consulting work with volunteer and civic participation in the region.